Course outline

While working on the bachelor thesis students are expected to develop a deeper insight into their chosen subject area in trade and retail management and strategic management. The thesis should be written within the subject areas in which the available tutors are qualified, to ensure optimum assistance.

Computer-based tools

Courses may be offered in the use of statistics programs (SPSS) and in information searches in the library.

Course structure

The course takes place over one semester. It comprises both lectures and supervision. A total of 20 hours' teaching is included and this is divided up as 12 hours' lectures and eight hours' seminar style teaching. There are four seminars, with four student groups per session. In addition, each student group received up to five hours' individual supervision.

The lectures comprise science theory and method. Advice for all students on assignment preparation is provided during the lectures. The seminars are compulsory. Materials from the seminars need to be collected by the students and placed in a folder. This folder is then handed in March 30th. 2007. Students who have not participated in the seminars and/or have not handed in their folders can be called in for an oral examination.

Evaluation

The thesis is to be written in the course of one semester, in groups up to 3 students.
