Globalisation of markets and industries forces firms to take an active stance to international markets. This course addresses the process that firms undergo in their international marketing endeavour and treats critical issues in developing and implementing marketing strategies in international markets.

Learning outcome

The students should at the end of this course have a thorough understanding of the main challenges facing firms in international markets. The course will, through lectures, group work, cases and work-shops highlight key strategic problems and discuss their solutions. Emphasis is placed on the students' ability to analyse different strategic situations of firms operating in international markets.

Course structure

The course will be carried out in three parts. Part 1 will basically consist of lectures and class discussions. In part 2 the students will present an outline of their term paper and will get feedback on their drafts, both from the professor and from fellow students. Part 3 will in its entirety consist of case seminars. Four cases will be treated by groups of students.

An off-campus seminar will entail some costs for the student (accommodation and travel).

In this course class attendance is mandatory. Unexcused absence can result in a lower score. Specific Information regarding student evaluation will be provided in class.

Evaluation

Evaluation is based on three components: term paper 1/3, case presentation 1/3 and case discussions 1/3. All parts of the evaluation need to be passed in order to get a grade in the course.

Evaluation code(s)

GRA 64261 accounts for 100% of the final grade in the course GRA 6426.

Aids at the examination

All aids are allowed. Exam aids at written examinations are explained under exam information in our web-based Student handbook. Please note use of calculator and dictionary.

Makeup exam

Re-takes are only possible at the next time a course will be held. When the course evaluation has a separate exam code for each part of the evaluation it is possible to retake parts of the evaluation. Otherwise, the whole course must be re-evaluated when a student wants to retake an exam. Retake examinations entail an extra examination fee.

Honor Code

Academic honesty and trust are important to all of us as individuals, and represent values that are encouraged and promoted by the honor code system. This is a most significant university tradition. Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the ideals of the honor code system, to which the faculty are also deeply committed.

Any violation of the honor code will be dealt with in accordance with BI's procedures for cheating. These issues are a serious matter to everyone associated with the programs at BI and are at the heart of the honor code and academy integrity. If you have any questions about your responsibilities under the honor code, please ask.
