

APPLIES TO ACADEMIC YEAR 2009/2010

EMS 9118 Oral Exam for the Bachelor Program in Real Estate Studies

Programme

Bachelor in Real Estate (3. year)

Responsible for the course

Department

Department of Accounting - Auditing and Law

Term

According to study plan

ECTS Credits

0

Language of instruction

Norwegian

Introduction

Students are required to have taken all written exams in the program before being allowed to sit for the oral exam.

Objective

The aim of the oral exam is to ensure that the candidate has an overall understanding of the subjects in the real estate studies program. The candidate is asked to give an oral account of selected topics from the program and show that he/she is capable of applying acquired knowledge in the real estate business.

Prerequisites

Bachelor program in real estate studies.

Compulsory reading

Other:

Pensum som står oppgitt under kursbeskrivelsene til de fagområder studenten har kommet opp i

Recommended reading

Course outline

The oral examination may include questions from the following three subject areas pursuant to the Regulation on the estate agency business of 23 November 2007.

- 1) Legal provisions and regulations
- 2) Estate agency practice and preparation of documents
- 3) Accountancy, economics and settlement of property deals.

Questions may also be asked from the candidate's bachelor thesis.

Even if the candidate has been granted a waiver from a course within one of the mentioned subject areas he/she may nevertheless be asked questions from this course at the oral exam.

Computer-based tools

None

Course structure

The program is concluded with an oral exam that is held at the end of the semester.

Candidates will be notified in writing approx. 2 weeks before the exam is held about the exam date and told which three subject areas they will be examined in.

The oral exam lasts about 25 minutes.

The candidate will be questioned in two subject areas by two graders, one from each subject area.

Examination

The oral exam is pass/fail. The result will be given immediately after the exam is completed.

Exam code(s)

EMS 91181 - Oral exam.

Examination support materials

The Norwegian Code of Lase, reprints, draft legislation (only the text) and regulations. Code of ethics for the Norwegian Association of Real Estate Agents.

Re-sit examination

A resit is held every semester even spring 2013.

Additional information

Due to changes in our Bachelor Programmes from autumn 2009, there also will be changes in every single course.