

APPLIES TO ACADEMIC YEAR 2010/2011

BIK 2907 Management Competence at Board Level II

Programme

Single courses

Responsible for the course

Department

Department of Innovation and Economic Organisation

Term

According to study plan

ECTS Credits

7,5

Language of instruction

Norwegian

Introduction

The course is a follow up of Management Competence at Board Level I, and includes elements like the processes in the board room and board management. The course is based on Management Competence at Board Level I.

Learning outcome

Knowledge:

The participants are expected to acquire better understanding of the theoretical, the judicial and practical framework, of the work inside the board room.

The participants are expected to understand how the board of directors should work with the company's risk factors

The participants are expected to understand the co-operation between the different stakeholders of a company

The participants are expected to understand the corporate governance principles, the role of the chairperson and important board processes

Skills:

The participants are expected to be able to use the theory in practical situations

The participants should be able to develop methods for the work of the chairperson

The participants should be able to develop methods for the work of the board of directors in different companies

Reflection:

The participants are expected to be able to contribute to the development of ethical reflections in the boardroom and thus influence common attitudes

The participants are expected to develop respect for the complexity of the work within the board

The participants are expected to develop attitudes regarding the necessity to prepare for the work within the boardroom

Prerequisites

Similar to Management Competence at Board Level I.

Compulsory reading

Books:

Selvik, Arne. 2009. Styreverden. Bergen : Fagbokforlaget

Articles:

Aktuelle artikler

Other:

Aksjeloven av 13. juni 1997, nr. 44. Den bør være kjøpt etter 01.01.2009

Norsk anbefaling Eierstyring og selskapsledelse. www.nues.no. 54 sider

Recommended reading

Books:

Standal, Elbjørg Gui og Arild I. Sølund. 2009. Håndbok i økonomi for styremedlemmer. 2. utg.

Oslo : Universitetsforlaget

Course outline

The board and the legal framework
How to prepare for board work
Tools
The board's role when trying to get new share capital
The board's role towards the owners
The board's role towards the general manager
The work inside the board room
The board's role during changes
The moral and ethics in the board room
Corporate governance questions
Board work in NGO, family business, publicly owned companies, etc.
The evaluation of board work
The role of the nomination committee
The board and the relationship to medias

Computer-based tools

The course uses IT's learning as tools of communication. The students need a PC to be able to access the network.

Learning process and workload

The course consists of 36 lectures over a period of 5 days, 2 + 3 days as a standard. The course has 42 lecturing hours, may be module based, for instance over 6 days in one semester; or four lecturing hours per week over 10 ½ weeks. Between the modules the students will work on a specific problem. The paper is to be presented in class.

Examination

The students hand in a term paper at the end of the course, the project paper may be done in groups of maximum 3 students

Examination code(s)

BIK 29071 Management Competence at Board Level II. The term paper counts 100% towards the final grade in BIK 2907, and gives 7,5 credits

Examination support materials

All aids are allowed + calculator TEXAS INSTRUMENTS BA II Plus™.

Re-sit examination

Next ordinary exam period.

Additional information