Language of instruction

Norwegian

Introduction

This course is lectured over two semesters and is consisting following two parts:

STR 2201 Strategic Analysis - autumn

STR 2202 Strategic Management - spring

Objective

STR 2201 Strategic Analysis

The course aims to give the students an understanding of strategy at the corporate and business unit level. Strategic analysis and decision making will be emphasized. Likewise, models and procedures for strategic analysis will be presented.

STR 2202 Strategic Management

This is a course in strategic development processes. The complexity of organizations means that strategy development and implementation is as important as strategic decision making. This course uses leadership, organization, and internal and external change processes as important components of the strategy process.

Prerequisites
