Introduction

This final course focuses on developing and managing businesses in the start-up phase. Particular attention will be paid to management challenges in the different developmental phases of a start-up business. There will be frequent discussions and visits by experienced entrepreneurs and other experts. Students on the course will also evaluate themselves as entrepreneurs and discuss whether they believe they will run a business in all phases of development or whether they will change roles en route.

Objective

The course will provide the students with:

- Knowledge of management processes and challenges in start-up businesses
- Knowledge of the role and work of a board
- Knowledge about what hinders and what promotes scaling- up and supergrowth
- An understanding of how and why a business and entrepreneur often go separate ways
- A summary and synthesis of entrepreneurship as a management activity through synthesizing experiences and insights from the three years of the course
- A good foundation for writing good Bachelor dissertations.

Prerequisites

The course is based on knowledge students are expected to have attained in the previous semesters.
