

APPLIES TO ACADEMIC YEAR 2012/2013

INF 2501 Knowledge Management - RE-SIT EXAMINATION

Programme

Re-sit examination

Responsible for the course

Petter Gottschalk

Department

Department of Leadership and Organizational Behaviour

Term

According to study plan

ECTS Credits

6

Language of instruction

Norwegian

Introduction

Knowledge management is concerned with development and application of knowledge, supported by information technology.

Objective

The course aims to provide students with a working competence in management of IT projects that support applications of information technology to improve knowledge management in knowledge-intensive business organizations.

Prerequisites

The two preceding years of the program.

Compulsory reading

Recommended reading

Course outline

- Knowledge in organizations
- Knowledge-based view of the firm
- Methods in knowledge management
- Chief Knowledge Officer
- Resource-based strategy
- Consequences for information systems
- Knowledge support systems
- Knowledge-oriented intranet requirements
- Business intelligence
- Project work
- Law firms as knowledge organizations
- IT strategy for knowledge management
- Stages of growth model
- Electronic business
- Business processes
- Knowledge principles
- Business models
- Police as a knowledge organization
- Police knowledge management

Computer-based tools

The Internet is used to explore knowledge management topics in business organizations.

Course structure

Examination

The final grade in the course is based on a project paper written individually or in groups of 2- 3 students, and also an one-hour control examination.

Examination code(s)

INF 25011 - Project Paper which accounts for 100% of the grade in INF 2501, 6 ECTS credits.
INF 25012 An one-hour written control examination that will be judged passed/failed.

Examination support materials

Project Paper: All support materials are allowed.

Control examination: No support materials are allowed.

Re-sit examination

This course was lectured for the last time autumn 2010. A re-sit exam will be offered every term from autumn 2011 even spring 2013.

Additional information