Introduction

Learning outcome

The purpose of this course is to give a broad overview of the recent globalization process. One aim is to introduce the students to the political, economic, and cultural aspects of the globalization process. Another is to highlight the institutional framework of globalization. A third aim is to focus on how recent globalization has occurred and compare the present features of the world economy with earlier and alternative modes of economic interaction. In this way, this course will provide students with long-term perspectives on international business development, and convey a dynamic understanding of global economic processes.

Learning process and workload

A course of 6 ECTS credits corresponds to a workload of 160-180 hours.

Lectures, cases, group work and discussions.

Please note that it is the student's own responsibility to obtain any information provided in class that is not included on the course homepage/It's learning or text book.

Examination

Your course grade will be based on the following activities and weights:

1. Individual written assignments count for 25% of the final grade.
2. A 3-hour written closed book exam counts for 75%.

This is a course with continuous assessment (several exam elements) and one final exam code. Each exam element will be graded using points on a scale (e.g. 0-100). The elements will be weighted together according to the information in the course description in order to calculate the final letter grade for the course. You will find detailed information.

Examination code(s)

GRA 63323 continuous assessment accounts for 100 % of the final grade in the course GRA 6332.

Examination support materials

A bilingual dictionary.

Exam aids at written examinations are explained under exam information in the student portal @bi. Please note use of calculator and dictionary in the section on examaids

Re-sit examination

It is only possible to retake an examination when the course is next taught.

The assessment in some courses is based on more than one exam code.

Where this is the case, you may retake only the assessed components of one of these exam codes.

Where this is not the case, all of the assessed components of the course must be retaken.

All retaken examinations will incur an additional fee.

Honor Code

Academic honesty and trust are important to all of us as individuals, and represent values that are encouraged and promoted by the honor code system. This is a most significant university tradition. Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the ideals of the honor code system, to which the faculty are also deeply committed.

Any violation of the honor code will be dealt with in accordance with BI's procedures for cheating. These issues are a serious matter to everyone associated with the programs at BI and are at the heart of the honor code and academic integrity. If you have any questions about your responsibilities under the honor code, please ask.
