Introduction

The course covers the copyright and contract law aspects in cultural industries.

Learning outcome

Acquired knowledge

The students should gain an understanding of intellectual property rights and be acquainted with particular challenges in various cultural sectors.

Acquired skills

After having completed the course the students should be able to see potential legal issues within the arts and culture area, to find the applicable rules of law in the copyright legislation and be able to apply them in practice. Particular emphasis is placed on the copyright protection of works of art, the contract aspects of the copyright owner's use of these rights and special statutory provisions for legal use of works of art.

Reflection

The student shall become aware of the value and rights that are associated with creative work and see the connection between the copyright owners' need for protection and society's need for access to creative work.

Prerequisites

The students must have completed year 1 and 2 of the programme.
