Introduction

Certified public accountants have demanding tasks relating to various legal issues. An in-depth introduction is therefore given to legal disciplines in which the auditor needs expert knowledge and is required to carry out tasks due to various public regulations.

Learning outcome

The course gives a deeper understanding of central subject areas for certified public accountants.

The students shall also gain a good understanding of:

Selected areas of contract law

Mortgage rules that enable an assessment of a company's security and secured debt

Basic knowledge of the rules concerning debt settlement proceedings and bankruptcy

Basic knowledge of labour law rules, and a good insight into the rules governing restructuring and reorganization.

Prerequisites

Students are expected to have prior knowledge equivalent to the admission requirements of the Master's programme in professional accountancy.

It's learning.

Learning process and workload

A course of 6 ECTS credits corresponds to a workload of 160-180 hours.

The course provides a deeper understanding of subjects that are crucial for certified public accountants. The various topics must be regarded in context; not all topics will be covered in the lectures.

Please note that while attendance is not compulsory in all courses, it is the student's own responsibility to obtain any information provided in class that is not included on the course homepage/It's learning or text book.

Examination

The course evaluation is a three-hour individual written exam consisting of both practical and theoretical questions.

Examination code(s)

GRA 62711 written exam which accounts for 100% of the grade in the course.

Examination support materials

The Norwegian code of laws, Compilation of tax laws, Auditor's manual.

Examination support materials at written examinations are explained under examination information in the student portal @bi. Please note use of calculator and dictionary in the section on support materials.

Re-sit examination

It is only possible to retake an examination when the course is next taught.

The assessment in some courses is based on more than one exam code.

Where this is the case, you may retake only the assessed components of one of these exam codes.

Where this is not the case, all of the assessed components of the course must be retaken.

All retaken examinations will incur an additional fee.

Additional information

Honor Code

Academic honesty and trust are important to all of us as individuals, and represent values that are encouraged and promoted by the honor code system. This is a most significant university tradition. Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the ideals of the honor code system, to which the faculty are also deeply committed.

Any violation of the honor code will be dealt with in accordance with BI's procedures for cheating. These issues are a serious matter to everyone associated with the programs at BI and are at the heart of the honor code and academic integrity. If you have any questions about your responsibilities under the honor code, please ask.
