Learning process and workload

The programme is taught in five course modules, totalling 150 lecture hours.

Project guidance differs in each Master of Management programme. It will consist of personal guidance and guidance in class. Generally the students may expect advisory guidance, not evaluating tutorials. The extent of guidance offered is estimated at two hours per student for students enrolled in an ordinary Master of Management programme. For students taking the programme as their final Master of Management programme the guidance offered is estimated total of six hours.

Examination

The students are evaluated through a term paper, counting 12 ECTS credits and an individual written exam, counting 18 ECTS credits. Both evaluations must be passed to obtain a certificate for the programme. The term paper may be written individually or in groups of maximum three persons.

For students taking this program as the final Master of Management Program the following applies:

The students are evaluated through a term paper, counting 24 ECTS credits and an individual written exam, counting 6 ECTS credits. The term paper may be written individually or in groups of maximum two persons. Both evaluations must be passed to obtain a certificate for the programme.
